Claim €: 80

Prior to claiming, players should familiarise themselves with the Clontarf GAA Medical Expenses Policy. Reimbursement for A&E Attendance will be €80 regardless of whether the player attends the public health service or private health service. Ancillary costs arising out of private attendance (e.g. x-rays) will not be covered nor will private medical consultations. Reimbursement for other medical expenses arising out of injuries may be claimed through the central GAA Injury Scheme.

Initial notification must be provided to insurers within 30 days(for Camogie)/56 days (for LGFA) /60 days (for GAA) of the injury, so it is important to contact the Club Administrator (administrator.clontarf.dublin@gaa.ie) as soon as the injury takes place as she will need to log claim within timeframe or else claim will not be processed.

If only claiming reimbursement of A&E, then please send this form onto our Treasurer; Tom McCabe (warmac3@gmail.com)
